COMMENCEMENT AT UNION SEMINARY

Closing Exercises Will Begin To-Day, to Continue Through Wednesday.

NOTED MINISTERS HERE

Dr. Orr, of Scotland, Dr. Moment, of Raleigh, and Dr. Graham, of Davidson, to Speak.

The closing exercises of the present session of Union Theological Seminary will begin to-day, to continue through Wednesday. Rev. James Orr, D. D., professor of apologetics and theology in the United Free Church College of Glasgow, Scotland, will preach this morning at 11 o'clock in the Second Presbyterian church the commencement sermon to the students of the seminary and to the public. To-night at 8 o'clock in the Grace Street Church, Rev. Alfred H. Moment, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C., will deliver the annual address to the Missionary Society of the seminary and to the public. Dr. Moment is one of the most noted Presbyterian ministers in the country. On Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, in Watts chapel, at the seminary, the address to the graduating class will be delivered by Rev. Alfred T. Graham, D. D., of Davidson College, N. C. Following this, there will be brief remarks to the class by the president of the seminary, and the exercises of the occasion and of the session will close with the awarding of the diplomas to the graduates.

REV. DR. ALFRED H. MOMENT, of Raleigh, N. C. who will speak here to-day.

Work of Dr. Orr.
Since the removal of Union Theological Seminary to Richmond, the institution has been providing special lectures for its students and the public of exceptional value by eminent scholars within and without Presbyterian bounds, such as Principal Lang and Dr. Stalker, of Scotland; Mrs. Lewis, of England, the discoverer of the Sinai Palimpsest; Dr. Francis L. Patton, Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler, Bishop Wilson, Mr. Robert E. Speer, Mr. John R. Mott and Mr. Marion Lawrence, the great Sunday-school expert. The taste and enterprise of the seminary in this matter is again illustrated in its bringing of the commencement exercises of the present session one of the most distinguished ministers now living, Rev. Dr. Orr, of Scotland. Dr. Orr is already well known as a lecturer in America, having delivered courses of lectures on German theology in Chicago in 1895 and at Allegheny and Auburn Seminars in 1897, and the Stone lectures at Princeton in 1903, and having just finished a series of lectures on the "Virgin Birth" in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, under the auspices of the Bible Teachers' Training School and the patronage of Miss Helen Gould. These lectures were attended by audiences which filled the large lecture-room of the church during the entire series. The Homiletic Review, referring to these lectures in New York, says: "The visit to the United States of Professor James Orr, of Glasgow, is as notable for the excellence of his Scotch theology as for the account of the errand that brings him here."

To reading ministers Dr. Orr is well and favorably known by his various published works, such as "The Christian View of God and the World" (now in its sixth edition), "The Supernatural in Christianity," "The Ritschlian Theology and the Evangelical Faith," "Neglected Factors in the Early Study of the Progress of Christianity," "Early Church History and Literature," "The Progress of Dogma," "David Hume," "The Problem of the Old Testament," his most recent work, which is receiving a wide reading in this country and in Europe. It was with this treatise that Dr. Orr in 1905 won the Bross Prize of $6,000, offered by Lake Forest University for the best book illustrating or demonstrating the Christian religion. Rev. John Watson, D. D., late pastor of the Sefton Park Presbyterian Church, in Liverpool, England, better known as "The MacLaren," the famous author, was expected to take part in the commencement exercises, but on account of illness he will not be present. Dr. Watson's address was being eagerly looked forward to, and it was with great disappointment that it was learned he would not be able to appear.

Law and Equity Court.

In the matter of the suit of Cary and others vs. W. J. Payne, in the Law and Equity Court, the evidence was completed yesterday, and the jury discharged until to-morrow. The entire afternoon was consumed in the argument of instructions by counsel before Judge Ingram. The jury will likely take the case to-morrow.

SENATOR SIMMONS SELLS HIS RESIDENCE

Retractive Home Brings $10,000. Senator Will Spend Summer on Farm.

IT'S "GRANDFATHER" GLENN

North Carolina Executive Stops at High Point Long Enough to See New-Comer.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., May 4.—United States Senator F. M. Simmons has sold his residence on Fayetteville Street, this city, to Mr. J. H. Robbins. The price is understood to have been about $10,000. The family is in Washington during the session of Congress, and on the Jones county plantation and at resorts during much of the intermissions, and in Raleigh they can make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Mahler; therefore the maintenance of the Fayetteville Street residence is considered unnecessary. Announcement is made that with the close of the present term of the Raleigh public schools, Professor E. P. Moses will retire from the superintendency, and the school board has appointed Dr. R. H. Lewis, J. W. Bailey and Garland Jones a committee to look out for a successor. Mr. Moses retires after twenty-two years' service. He has not announced his plans. It is believed, however, that he will retire from active school work. Dr. T. N. Ivey went to Wilson this afternoon to take part in the dedication of the new $20,000 Methodist church there. President Kilgo, of Trinity College, will deliver the sermon. L. W. Bailey has been appointed to deliver the baccalaureate address for the commencement of the Southern Baptist Seminary, at Louisville, Ky. He will also deliver a missionary address before the Baptist convention in Richmond May 15th. Governor Glenn returned to the city on the early morning train from Lexington, where he delivered the address at the close of the public schools. He also stopped at High Point to see his first grandchild, a fine little son born to Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Glenn.

"NEVER HANG ME."

Empty Threat of Detective Sentenced to Die on May 24th.
AUGUSTA, GA., May 4.—"I'll be d-d if they will hang me. When I get out of this trouble I will horsewhip those fellows in there. These are some of the statements made to-day by Arthur Glover, after being sentenced for the second time to be hanged on May 24th for the murder of Maud Dean.

Glover, who was a detective, shot the woman dead without a moment's warning. Not long before that he had shot a negro, but was acquitted. His defense at the second trial included brainstorm, paranoia, etc. The judge's arraignment of him in passing sentence was the most severe ever heard in Richmond county.

UNITE ON McLEMORE.

Well-Known Banker of Suffolk Indorsed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, VA., May 4.—There was this afternoon another conference of the Nansemond Bar Association, called for the purpose of uniting on a candidate whom Governor Swanson will be asked to appoint to succeed Judge Robert H. Prentiss.

The association unanimously indorsed James L. McLemore, president of the Bank of Suffolk, and a member of the law firm of McLemore & Corbitt. An effort will be made to unite the influence of the Nansemond and Southampton associations.

The following committee was appointed to visit Governor Swanson Monday in Mr. McLemore's behalf: Colonel E. E. Holland, Robert W. Withers, James H. Burgess, John E. Pinner and James H. Corbitt.

Want Mr. Taylor to Run.

Friends of Mr. Carroll Taylor, a prominent young business man of Madison Ward, are urging him to become a candidate for the City Democratic Committee. Mr. Taylor holds an important position with a Richmond business concern and is a man of widespread popularity. He has under advisement the matter of becoming a candidate.

Woman Goes to Jail.

Bessie Gibson, white, charged with blackmailing a merchant on West Broad Street, was sentenced yesterday to six months in jail. This is another of many offenses committed by the Gibson woman.

Governor Didn't Go.

Governor Swanson spent yesterday in his office, transacting routine business and receiving callers. The Governor found that official engagements here would prevent him from attending the reception given by Admiral Evans at the exposition yesterday.
